

4th Annual Lexington Arts and Crafts Society Student Exhibit

January 30 ~ February 14, 2016

The Lexington Arts and Crafts Society will hold a special Exhibition of original work by adults and teens, beginners to advanced, of the students enrolled in the program of classes and workshops offered by the Society. The mission over the past 80 years is to preserve and promote excellence in both the traditional and contemporary Arts and Crafts.

View the results of working with our talented and well-known instructors and be inspired to tap into your creative side with the variety of mediums available including: Metalsmithing, Painting & Drawing in all mediums, Decorative Arts, Needle Arts, Polymer Clay, Beading, Photography, Weaving, Ceramics, Woodworking, Figure Drawing and Chinese Brush Painting.

Come to the reception on January 31st from 3 to 5pm and speak with the Instructors and Students and consider taking a class or workshop.

Gallery Hours: Tuesday-Friday & Sunday 12-4; Saturday 10-4
