

The Painters Guild presents
Dawn Evans Scaltreto
A Demonstration in Watercolor Fabric Textures

Sunday, September 18, 2016 • 2:00~4:00pm

A professional illustrator, muralist and fine artist whose clients include the Boston Children's Hospital, the Boston Museum of Science and Illuminations, Inc. She has been a resident of Watertown for 24 years and is active in many local arts organizations. A Past President of the Watertown Art Association, Dawn also serves as a board member of the Arsenal Center for the Arts. She teaches watercolor, acrylic and oil painting at the Watertown, Waltham and Brighton Senior Centers, and many adult, youth and intergenerational arts programs and courses. Her recent projects include creating 5 cows for Boston Cows on Parade to benefit the Jimmy Fund and new installation artwork at the Boston Children's Hospital Waltham facility.

“My creations combine some of the aspects of watercolor I love best - the unexpected textures, the ability to layer and lift off to create a surprising sense of depth and rich, saturated colors.” - Dawn Evans Scaltreto

Her work has been featured on WCVB's Chronicle and in print, including The Artist's Magazine and Watercolor Magic magazine.
